

Event: All Candidates Forum, Halifax Chebucto and Halifax Citadel / Sable Island Ridings

Title: Values and Vision

Date: Friday, May 19, 2017
7:00 – 8:30 pm

Location: Saint Andrew's United Church
Corner of Coburg Rd. and Robie St.

Participants: Gary Burrill, New Democratic Party (Chebucto)
Casey Dylan Meijer, Green Party (Chebucto)
John Wesley Chisholm, Conservative Party (Chebucto)
Joichim Stroink, Liberal Party (Chebucto)
Labi Kousoulis, Liberal Party (Citadel - Sable Island)
Glenn Watson, New Democratic Party (Citadel - Sable Island)

Moderated by: Pauline Dakin

This forum asks candidates for two Halifax Ridings to address key humanitarian issues, and the values and vision that inform their decision-making, policy, and leadership around such issues. Topics will include:

- Poverty Justice
- Welcoming the Stranger (Refugees, Immigration, Hospitality)
- Care for Creation (Environmental Concern)

The event is jointly sponsored by a variety of faith communities located within peninsular Halifax, including:

Saint Andrew's United Church
The Halifax Shambhala Center
The Universalist Unitarian Church
Saint David's Presbyterian Church

Pauline Dakin, CBC journalist, Associate Professor (University of Kings College School of Journalism), writer, and producer, will moderate. Questions from the audience will be submitted in writing, selected, and voiced by the moderator.

The Media is welcome at this event. The Saint Andrew's sanctuary has adequate space and a quality sound system to meet your needs.

For further information, contact the office of St. Andrew's United at: 902-422-3157 or saintandrews@eastlink.ca