MISSION MOMENTS: Attending to physical and spiritual needs in Saskatoon

The cost of living in Saskatchewan is rising, making it even more challenging for those on the margins to make ends meet. Saskatoon Native Circle Ministry understands that, when times are tough, people need spiritual as well as physical care. With support from Presbyterians Sharing, the ministry offers a clothing and food program, a mid-week worship service, an arts program, and crisis and spiritual counseling. Rooted in First Nations' traditions and gospel teachings, SNCM offers prayer, friendship, and radical hospitality to those who are struggling.

PRAYER PARTNERSHIP Pray for people who have family members and friends who are facing serious illness and death—that they may feel supported through the darkest times.

STEWARDSHIP The generous will themselves be blessed, for they share their food with the poor.

Proverbs 22:9, NIV

The programme will consist of a selection of variations by Felix Mendelssohn, William Felton, Jehan Alain, John Amner and Jan Pieterszoon Sweelinck.

This August, St. Johns United Church is excited to host the GO Project Childrens' Adventure Camp for a week of fun, crafts, volunteering, and serving God in our community. This is for children who are entering grades 2 to grades 7. The GO Project's mission is to create meaningful experiences for children, youth and adults through volunteering in their local communities and seeing the work that is being done by us as the hands and feet of God. This year, the theme is John 6:1-14, the Loaves and the Fishes. Through this story we will be exploring the gifts that each of us have to offer to our communities, our families, ourselves, and God! If you are interested in learning more check us out at www.thegoproject.ca or contact your minister to learn more; but hurry, limited space is available! This camp will run daily from August 7-10. The cost per participant is $125.

Mark 5:21-43 When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly,

“My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.” So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, “If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.” Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?” And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, ‘Who touched me?’” He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.”

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, “Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?” But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, “Do not fear, only believe.” He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, “Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, “Talitha cum,” which means, “Little girl, get up!” And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.
